Rough Trade

Kai liked to play rough.

Dirk sucked the split in his lip, metallic tang of his blood a physical reminder of the passion that followed the blows, the slaps, the punches. Kai was not, usually, violent; but when it all built up and he couldn't keep it inside he would come to Dirk.

They would get into an argument over something, and good natured wrestling would become something darker, deeper. More needy, and he would take whatever Kai meted out because it made what followed oh, so sweet.

And his hands were so gentle, after.

Dirk liked it rough, too.
